NEWS AND NOTES
October 1986

PIZZA NIGHT. Our September meeting was our annual Peoples Choice Car Show and Pizza Night. It again was organized and hosted by Bonnie and John Busk. And again it was a very enjoyable and well run event. See our Secretary's Report for more information about this delightful evening.

OUR OCTOBER MEETING will be at our new meeting place at the Canoga Park Community Center. It is located at 7248 Owensmouth Ave., Canoga Park. This facility is a converted fire station which I think you will find to be a delightful setting for our meetings.

OFFICER NOMINATIONS. I would like all our present officers to join me at 7 pm on October 5th for a short board meeting. The primary agenda item is to discuss potential candidates for 1987 club offices. Any of you other members who have some input are also invited to attend. Nominations for offices will take place during the regular meeting.

FORMAL PROGRAM 7:30 pm Sunday, October 5. Dan Krehbiel, the National Advisor on Columbia Overdrives, will be sharing his expertise with us. Dan promises to give us a different perspective from those excellent presentations we have recieved from John Deats. Be sure to attend this meeting to get the benefit of Dan's knowledge.

INFORMATION OFFICER. Bob McCullagh is going to outline how he can help each of us with restoration questions and sources by sharing some of his experiences.

DRIVE YOUR V-B AWARDS. As the year winds into the fourth quarter the standings for your Drive Your V-B Awards are still very close. If any of the leaders miss one of the next meetings, there is an opportunity for others to move up. John Wolf and Pat Berry continue in the lead. The balance of the top ten are:

Virginia Wolf
Don Dupree
Jack Kelegian
Bob Rose
Fred Gruchalla
Chuck Mair
Bill Woods
Larry Caplan

FOUR REGION BRUNCH TOUR. On Sunday, October 19th we are touring to the Peppermill Restaurant in Pasadena for brunch. There is an award for the Regional Group with the largest percentage of members in attendance. I want the Valley V-B's to win that award. Doug Peterson will give us the details on where and what time we are meeting. See the included flyer for details.

MEMBERSHIP. We have recently obtained three new memberships. They are:
Tish and Bruce Forbes
Barbara and Jay Fortman
Larry Darr and
Diane and William Campbell

We welcome each of you as new members of the Valley V-8's. An update including your names and addresses is in this newsletter for adding to the membership roster.

PUTTIN' ON THE RITZ- Bend, Oregon 1987. Jerry Blackwell pointed out to me that I had left the application form out of the August newsletter when I wrote about the 1987 Western National Meet. So it is included in this newsletter.

"Very Special Places (A Lover's Guide to America)" has this to say about The Inn of the 7th Mountain: "it's a mountain playground with tennis, ice skating, outdoor chess with hand-carved three-foot-high pieces, raft trips down the rapids, sailing and rowing on the lake, two heated pools, two saunas, horseback riding, golf. The --- guest rooms are in rows of cedar-sided villas around the perimeter, so that all the picture windows look out onto views of lake, forest, and mountain." Don't miss it.

See you at the meeting on October 5th.
